

WVGA Dress Code

Players and caddies must be properly attired on the golf course, in the clubhouse and on the grounds. This policy is mandatory in all phases of West Virginia Golf Association tournaments and events, including qualifying rounds, practice rounds, and before and after play. Players and caddies may be required to change clothing in order to practice or compete.

Players and caddies must be properly attired on the golf course, in the clubhouse and on the grounds. This policy is mandatory in all phases of West Virginia Golf Association tournaments and events, including qualifying rounds, practice rounds, and before and after play. Players and caddies may be required to change clothing in order to practice or compete.

The West Virginia Golf Association Dress Code Policy requires that, while participating in WVGA tournaments or events, all players be properly attired and adhere to the following:

- All clothing must be neat, clean and in good condition.
- All shirts must have sleeves and collars.
- Sweaters are permitted.
- Shorts are acceptable, provided they are Bermuda length or longer.
- "Spikeless" shoes are required.
- Tank tops, tee shirts, gym shorts, cut-off pants, bathing suits, sweat pants, blue jeans, and sandals are prohibited.
- Shirts must stay tucked in for the duration of the round.
- The length of a skirt, dress, or shorts must extend at least the player's mid-thigh.

VIOLATIONS OF THIS POLICY MAY RESULT IN DISQUALIFICATION IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE WVGA CODE OF CONDUCT.

- Note: At clubs that have dress code policies, spectators are also required to observe the dress code of the club. If a host club has a more restrictive dress code policy, the West Virginia Golf Association will adhere to the more restrictive club policy.

Updated 1/2015